

Directions to Stelling Bungalow:

Stelling holiday let is located in Gordon Road (a cul-de-sac) at the eastern edge of Emsworth.

How to get here by road:

From the West

Travel on the M27 and Head east towards Portsmouth and Chichester.

Stay on the M27, which becomes the A27 just past the junction with the M275, heading towards Chichester and going past the junctions for Portsmouth (M275), Southsea (A2030), London A3(M)) and Havant/Hayling (A3023).

Turn off the A27 at the next junction and follow the A259 signposted to Emsworth \(A259\).

Go past the Brookfield hotel (Clinton stayed here during the D-day anniversary in 1994) , at the next roundabout go straight ahead over the millpond and past The Sussex Brewery (a small pub on the right. Take the second turning right which is Gordon Road.

From the North

Travel on the A3 and head south direction, Portsmouth.

Keep going past Petersfield and Butser Hill – deep cutting – past the Queen Elizabeth Country Park on your left and Windmill Hill (it has a Windmill on top) also on your left. You will then be approaching Horndean

Stay on the A3 do not take the turning to Horndean The A3 then becomes the A3M take the first junction left, sign posted to Rowlands Castle and Emsworth B2149

Keep going past the Horndean Oil field and Rowlands Castle (this is a village not a castle) both to the left.

Just past Rowlands Castle you come to two mini-roundabouts turn left at the second one sign posted to Emsworth, B2148. Pass the Staunton Arms on the left and keep going. Eventually you approach Emsworth from the North down the Horndean Road.

Go under two bridges, the first a road bridge the second rail, very close together past The Railway Inn, on the left.

The road wriggles about a bit and you come to a roundabout turnleft onto the A259, sign posted to Chichester. Follow this road over the millpond and past The Sussex Brewery (a small pub on the right. Take the second turning right which is Gordon Road.

From the east

Travel on to the A27 and head west towards Chichester, Portsmouth and Southampton

Avoid entering Chichester by taking the bypass – the A27 follow the signs for Portsmouth and Southampton.

At the end of the Chichester bypass you will approach the Fishbourne Roundabout identified by a large Tesco's store.

Stay on the A27* continuing to follow the signs for Portsmouth and Southampton for eight miles. At the first junction turn off onto the A259 and follow the signs for Emsworth You will now be heading East. Go past the Brookfield hotel (Clinton stayed here during the D-day anniversary in 1994) , at the next roundabout go straight ahead over the millpond and past The Sussex Brewery (a small pub on the right. Take the second turning right which is Gordon Road.

*Alternatively, when you get to the large roundabout by Tesco's at the end of the Chichester-by-pass, take the first exit off the roundabout \(which is the A259 and sign-posted to Bosham and Fishbourne\). Keep going until reaching the village of Southbourne, (with a mini roundabout and church on your right). Keep going west, passing the church on your right and the third turning on your left \(about half a mile\) is Gordon Road. Stelling is on the left about two-thirds of the way down.
